TUESDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1897.

Funeral of Gov. Bodwell.

Today the people of Maine will pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of our late Chief Magistrate. The funeral, arrangements for which appear in another column of this Whig, will be in keeping with the dignity of the deceased. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock in the forenoon in the City Church, where the body will lie in state. The funeral will be a public one, and will be held in the City Church, where the body will lie in state. The funeral will be a public one, and will be held in the City Church, where the body will lie in state.

The Cleveland press is much disturbed by the formation of the Republican Union. They have declared that and that the Republican party was dead, the liveliness of the corpse is a source of constant anxiety to them.
